HOW TO GET HERE

Stanton is a small village 2.5 miles south of Broadway, just off the B4632 Broadway to Winchcombe road.

From Evesham take the A44 towards Oxford and turn off at Broadway. Just outside Broadway, take the B4632 towards Winchcombe / Cheltenham.

From the M5 leave at Junc. 9 (Tewkesbury) and take the A46 towards Stratford on Avon. After 4 miles turn right at the roundabout, and take the B4077 signposted Stow on the Wold, as far as Toddington roundabout. Turn left along the B4632 towards Broadway.

From Stow-on-the-Wold take the B4077 as far as Toddington roundabout. Turn right at the roundabout and take the B4632 towards Broadway.

From the B4632 there are two turnings signed Stanton. From either of these, drive for 1 mile until the road splits on a sharp bend in the centre of the village, at the War Memorial by Stanton Court. TURN INTO THE BROAD HIGH STREET, past the stone cross on left and continue, keeping left, up the narrow road past the Mount Inn. Turn right into the lower car park of the pub, and through the gate of the Guildhouse. Drive up to the house or use the lower car park. Upper Car Park priority is given to those with disabilities, but can be used for unloading.

Materials: If you are a beginner please inform the office and the tutor will give starting advice for your lesson. Cost of any materials provided by tutor to be paid to tutor. Thereafter you will be advised where to source your own materials. Clay is £3.50 per kilo weighed finished item. See tutor for glass prices.

Clothing: Please wear appropriate protective clothing, and footwear suitable for workshops. Please bring eye goggles and dust masks where appropriate. The Guildhouse has a limited supply of these items.

WOODCARVING

A wonderfully creative, expressive and precise art. Coaching for traditional and abstract forms, learning to work with natural wood and work with its qualities. Teaching includes care of chisels and sharpening tools.

Mondays AM and PM £108 (9 weeks)

WOODTURNING

Learn how to craft woods to full advantage and produce a wonderful range of exquisite everyday and unique items on the lathes. NB: students must help tidy/straighten up on all messier courses! Monday evenings £108 (9 weeks) and Wednesday AM and PM £120 (10 weeks)

WOODWORK

Beginners select simple projects then learn the basics of design, marking, sawing, planing and joining and the use and care of tools. The more experienced also receive individual tuition and advice for their chosen projects.

Tuesday evenings £120 (10 weeks)

ART FOR ALL Designed for anyone who would like to learn a new skill or develop an existing one.

Beginning with line drawing using pencil, graphite and charcoal, exploring shade, tone, perspective and composition. Progressing to colour, using pastels, watercolour pencils, acrylics and ink...working in still life, portraiture and landscape. Two classes available one for beginners in the morning and improvers in the afternoon

Wednesday AM £120 (10 weeks)

POTTERY

Coiling, slab building, throwing on the wheel, glazes and firing in our own kiln. Beginners are welcome. Get stuck in and grasp the undoubtedly therapeutic aspects of handling the clay and working the artistry of glazes!

Wednesday PM and EVE £117 (9weeks) and Fridays AM and PM £104 (8 weeks)

STAINED GLASS AND KILN-FIRED GLASS

Make stained glass pieces using traditional techniques for cutting glass, leading, soldering to produce an individual panel! Beginners and improvers welcome. Kiln-fired glass – create designed pieces using colour and texture, learning to incorporate diverse materials. The panels are then kiln-fired and the results can be put to great effect, for practical use, art or gift. Glass bought from Tutor paid to Tutor.

Thursday AM £150 (10weeks)

RURAL READ BOOK GROUP

This is open to all members of the community from 15 to 95! Meeting monthly on Thursdays 10.30- 12.00. Group is self-led. Each meeting can be viewed as a social event with tea and coffee. Drinks provided by us. A termly cost of £15 per person is all that is requested, to contribute to refreshment costs, stationery and Trust administration. Ring for title of current book choice.
